13. On June 6, 2018 Plaintiff made a loan payment of $150,000 to Defendant which left a balance of only $200,000 on the original loan.
14. On October 24, 2019 Plaintiff had a conference call with Defendant Fanticola and his in-house lawyer, Guy Whitworth, over the status of his loan and at that time Plaintiff made Fanticola and Whitworth aware that he would be practicing law from his home office at 1672 Liege Drive in Henderson, Nevada 89012 for the rest of the 2019 year.
15. Plaintiff made clear that any correspondence regarding the loan should also be sent to him at his home office.
16. On December 16, 2019, Defendant filed a Notice of Breach and Election to Sell with the Clark County Recorder.
17. No Notice of Breach and Election to Sell was sent to Plaintiff via registered or certified mail as required pursuant to NRS Chapter 107 and, as a result, Plaintiff was unaware of the Notice.
18. On or about February 2020, Plaintiff mailed written notice to Defendant Fanticola that he would continue to work at his home office for the remainder of 2020.

22. On or about April 10, 2020, Defendant's lawyer, Guy Whitworth ("Mr. Whitworth"), contacted Plaintiff regarding vagrants camping along the Subject Property perimeter indicating he and Defendant were aware Plaintiff was working from his 1672 Liege Drive home office.
23. On April 10, 2020, Mr. Whitworth sent Plaintiff an email of a Stipulation granting a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to Defendant which prevented the first place lienholder from foreclosing on the subject property.

24. This was the first time Plaintiff was made aware of that lawsuit.
25. Another email from Mr. Whitworth on April 10, 2020 told Plaintiff that “to date we have not authorized sending notice (of the Trustee’s Sale)”.
26. This was the first time Plaintiff was made aware that a Notice of Default had been filed against the Subject Property since Defendant filed the Notice 5 months prior in time.
27. Thereafter, Plaintiff then mailed a letter to Defendant requesting a copy of the Notice of Breach because he never received the Notice when it was originally filed on December 16, 2019.
28. Plaintiff also made a request for Accounting of the loan balance and pay off amount in that letter pursuant to NRS Chapter 107.
29. The information requested was never provided.
30. On March 26, 2021 Defendant Fanticola filed a Notice of Entry of Order granting his Motion for Summary Judgment motion regarding clarity on the lien priority.
31. Plaintiff was never provided a copy of this Order affecting the Subject Property and Plaintiff’s property rights.
32. On April 5, 2021 a Notice of Trustee’s Sale was filed with the Recorder by Defendant to hold a foreclosure sale for the Subject Property on April 26, 2021.
33. Plaintiff was not served with the Notice of Trustee’s Sale pursuant to NRS Chapter 107.
34. The Trustee’s Sale was eventually stayed but Defendants never noticed a continuance of the Trustee’s Sale beyond the April 26, 2021 date.
35. Plaintiff was never served with notice of any continuance of the Trustee’s Sale beyond the April 26, 2021 date.
36. Plaintiff did not even find out about the April 26, 2021 foreclosure sale until advised by a disinterested third party on May 24, 2021.
37. Plaintiff then immediately contacted Mr. Whitworth via email and noted that he was never served with a Notice of Trustee’s Sale as required by NRS Chapter 107.
38. Plaintiff also told Mr. Whitworth that he declined to waive his right to legal notice and agreed to accept service – reminding him again to send to his 1672 Liege Drive home office in Henderson, Nevada 89012.

39. Neither Mr. Whitworth nor Defendant responded to Plaintiff's message for more than ten days after Plaintiff contacted him.
40. During that time, Defendant quickly wrapped up his lawsuit on May 27, 2021 and then just as quickly held a Trustee's Sale of the Subject Property the very next day - May 28, 2021 - without giving notice to Plaintiff pursuant to NRS Chapter 107.
41. After the foreclosure, Defendants failed to post the Trustee's Deed of Sale on the property.
42. Plaintiff did not even know that Defendant had foreclosed on the Subject Property until June 6, 2020, when he was able to make contact with Defendant Fanticola and confirm the foreclosure.
43. Thereafter, without notice to Plaintiff or tenant Law Offices, Defendant entered the office building on the Subject Property and moved the entire contents of Plaintiff's Law Office to a storage facility without notice.
44. No Notice to Pay or Quit was posted on the Subject Property nor served on Plaintiff or the tenant Law Offices of Brian C. Padgett.
45. No Notice of Unlawful Detainer was posted on the Subject Property nor served on Plaintiff or the tenant Law Offices prior to eviction.
46. Thereafter, Plaintiff was contacted by the storage company Defendant hired to move Plaintiff's belongings out of the Subject Property.
47. A contract was sent to Plaintiff to pay for storage costs and Defendant supplied the storage company with Plaintiff's home office address of 1672 Liege Drive, Henderson, NV 89012 showing he was knowledgeable at all times of the proper contact address for Plaintiff.
